Emma's Show Horse Championships – Conditions of entry.

- A 'Youth' is a person who will be under the age of 18 years on the Day of the Show. Those aged 18 on the day are Adult Riders.
- Show Hunters - It is preferred that horses competing in Show Hunter events wear a plain non coloured browband, however due to the amount of classes at this event, judges will be asked to excuse any competitor who asked to be excused from this rule for an individual class. However all mounts competing for Champion Show Hunter Titles must wear a plain browband for the Championship judging. Time may be allowed by the Judges and Stewards for bridle swaps.
- In Show Hunter events - the judges may ask competitors for a hand gallop. This is to be done at a safe pace and we ask competitors not to be irresponsible in their speed of pace and to be mindful of other competitors. Any rider who does not feel comfortable with the workout will need to express their wishes to the judge, for their decision for ongoing judging.
- Judges officiating at the ESH Show are under no obligation to award 1st, 2nd or 3rd place if they consider such placing not up to standard.
- Competitor Responsibility - a) It is the Competitor's/Exhibitor's responsibility to ensure eligibility for a class.
- Where any ineligibility to compete may occur, the Competitor/Exhibitor (not the judge) should withdraw from the class/event. Competitor/Exhibitor/Owner, should not compete under any Judge where a breach of these Rules may occur. It is the responsibility of the Competitor/Exhibitor to ascertain who is the Judge of any class/event he/she intends to compete in. Where a conflict may occur, the onus, in the first instance, is on the Competitor/Exhibitor to abide by the Rules and withdraw from competition. In the second instance, a Judge should not knowingly judge an ineligible entrant. Ignorance will not be accepted as a defence for breach of the Rule.
- Any dealings between judges and competitors from 1st July 2017 for Horse Purchase, Showing or Preparation of a horse, Training/Lessons for Horse or Rider, Business transactions where money exchanges hands for the fore mentioned reasons or Family matters (related by blood or marriage) will deem a competitor ineligible to compete. Social occasions will not be considered formal interaction. Gifts or product giving will not be considered business transactions.
- A Competitor/Exhibitor or a member of their family shall not approach a Judge with regard to a decision, unless they first obtain permission from the Ringmaster or the Ring Steward who may arrange an appointment with the Judge, at an appropriate place and time. The Judge or Official may refuse the request. A representative of ESH shall remain present during any such discussion/meeting.
- Any alleged acts of cruelty are to be reported to the ESH Committee in writing. The statement referring to the alleged cruelty should be supported by signed statements from two witnesses. The matter will be dealt with in a confidential manner with ESH Officials.
- A Competitor/Exhibitor shall at all times behave in a proper and respectful manner to Judges, Show Officials and their fellow competitors.
- It is the onus is on the Competitor/Exhibitor to ensure that the Horse/Rider/Handler is eligible for any class entered and/or competed in.
- Falsification of any information on any documentation (including entry forms) supplied to ESH shall be considered a Breach of Rules.
- Any defaced or altered Certificate or any Certificate containing false information shall be deemed to be invalid.
- Any invalid Registration or Height Certificate shall render the horse ineligible to compete the current ESH Show and possibly future events.

Program of Events - ESH Show Horse Championships & Breed Championships

- The Four (4) Official ESH Show Horse Judges will rotate to judge the Open Hack, Show Hunter and Rider events for the Championships.
- Three (3) Judges at each time will stand separately for the judging of the above Championships with placing's confirmed by our Ringmaster for the awards presentation
- All four (4) Open Judges listed will combine to judge the Grand Champion events listed in the Saddle Horse section of the program.
- All four (3) Breed Judges listed will combine to judge the Grand Champion events listed in the Breed section of the program.

Emma's Show Horse Championships – Conditions of entry.

- The ESH Show Committee reserve the right to swap or change any judges for the judging of Grand Champion, in the event of sickness, early departure from the event or other unforeseen circumstances
- All other events in the ESH Championships program will be judged solely by the listed Judge in the ring program.
- The Judges decision is final.
- ESH have tried to ensure minimal class clashes will occur in our scheduling. Should you see that a class you have entered may clash - please advise the Ringmaster as soon as possible. Our Ringmaster in consultation with the Judge(s) will use their discretion on the time allowed for competitors to hold up any of the rings. Championship Events will not be held for competitors if they are not presented in the ring for the commencement of the event. Please note the Ringmaster's decision will be final
- The ESH Show Committee reserve the right to add or alter any classes to the show schedule at any time or during the competition day.
- In the event of Classes having large numbers entered, judges will have catered for them additional ribbons should they wish to split classes further. This will be entirely the discretion of the Judge/ Steward and confirmation received to the Ringmaster.
- In the event that a Ring may finish early and others still have many events to be judged – The Show Committee may choose to allow the finished Judge to take on classes from other rings, to ensure a timely finish for all competitors especially prior to the judging of Grand Champions. Should this occur, competitors will be advised by our announcer with time allowed for them to prepare for any changes.
